

A young girl with dark hair, wearing a white, sequined, sleeveless dress with a full, ruffled skirt and white sandals, stands in front of a severely damaged wall. The wall is made of light-colored stone or concrete, with large sections missing and exposed brickwork. The ground is covered in rubble and debris. The overall scene is one of devastation and hardship.

Fundraiser for Palestine

Saturday 21st February
9pm till late

Funds raised will go to families in Balata refugee camp who recently had their homes demolished by the Israeli army

Venue: Sahara Nights
267 Pentonville Road
Kings Cross, London

Entrance: £5 on door

Further info call:
07931 544860 or 07748 764847

A night of world music including funky Arabic beats, hip-hop, r'n'b, Bhangra, rap & ragga from top London DJs Aki of Fun-da-mental, DJs Rich & Suki & live PA from UK Apache. Other acts to be confirmed. Also on the night new video footage from activists in Palestine... Sheesha pipes... Henna artist... Raffle prizes to be won!