

WALK OUT AGAINST WAR & POVERTY

National School Students' Day of Action
Wednesday 6th July 2005

Text PLEDGE WALKOUT
to 60022 or go to
www.pledgebank.com/walkout
(costs the same as a normal text)

SSAW is a national network
of school students.

Telephone 07981 753 053
E-mail alys@riseup.net

In February 2003, 2 million people took to the streets of London in protest against the invasion of Iraq. Weeks later - when Tony Blair decided to ignore the demonstration and take us to war - tens of thousands of school students walked out to say 'not in our name.'

In November 2003, we did it again, when George Bush visited London.

This July, Tony Blair, George Bush and other warmongers are meeting in the UK at the G8 summit. This is an unmissable opportunity to protest against their policies on war, poverty and climate change.

With 100,000 dead in Iraq, 30,000 children dying in Africa every day, and the threat of catastrophic climate change around the corner, we must protest in whatever way we can - even if it means missing lessons. It's easy to feel powerless, but Wednesday 6th July will be a celebration of our determination to change things - and a sign of hope for the future.

- There will be demonstrations around Scotland every day from July 2nd-July 8th (see www.dissent.org.uk for details).
- If you can't make it to Scotland, why not demonstrate in your local town centre on Wednesday 6th July?
- In London, school students will be assembling in Parliament Square from 12 noon, with a rally at 4.30pm. Bring placards!
- Leaflets, posters, assemblies and stalls are great ways of telling people about why we need to protest about war and poverty. Get in touch if you'd like help campaigning in your school (details overleaf).
- Don't forget to text PLEDGE WALKOUT to 60022 if you're planning to walk out! (costs the same as a normal txt)

WALK OUT AGAINST WAR & POVERTY

National School Students' Day of Action
Wednesday 6th July 2005

Text PLEDGE WALKOUT
to 60022 or go to
www.pledgebank.com/walkout
(costs the same as a normal text)

SSAW is a national network
of school students.

Telephone 07981 753 053
E-mail alys@riseup.net

In February 2003, 2 million people took to the streets of London in protest against the invasion of Iraq. Weeks later - when Tony Blair decided to ignore the demonstration and take us to war - tens of thousands of school students walked out to say 'not in our name.'

In November 2003, we did it again, when George Bush visited London.

This July, Tony Blair, George Bush and other warmongers are meeting in the UK at the G8 summit. This is an unmissable opportunity to protest against their policies on war, poverty and climate change.

With 100,000 dead in Iraq, 30,000 children dying in Africa every day, and the threat of catastrophic climate change around the corner, we must protest in whatever way we can - even if it means missing lessons. It's easy to feel powerless, but Wednesday 6th July will be a celebration of our determination to change things - and a sign of hope for the future.

- There will be demonstrations around Scotland every day from July 2nd-July 8th (see www.dissent.org.uk for details).
- If you can't make it to Scotland, why not demonstrate in your local town centre on Wednesday 6th July?
- In London, school students will be assembling in Parliament Square from 12 noon, with a rally at 4.30pm. Bring placards!
- Leaflets, posters, assemblies and stalls are great ways of telling people about why we need to protest about war and poverty. Get in touch if you'd like help campaigning in your school (details overleaf).
- Don't forget to text PLEDGE WALKOUT to 60022 if you're planning to walk out! (costs the same as a normal txt)