

“People should not be afraid of their governments.
Governments should be afraid of their people”

A weekend of planning and training for ‘Sack Parliament’

Film night & discussion Friday 6th October - 7pm @ LARC

V For Vendetta (2006) - Climaxing in a mass of people going to Sack Parliament.
PLUS: Films of actions against the war over the summer including the blockade of the Foreign Office and Brize Norton.

ALSO: Discussion on plans for Monday 9th October: Sack Parliament.

Training day Saturday 7th October - 10am-4pm @LARC

A training day for people interested to learn and share skills. Workshops include:

Affinity Groups: What they are, how to organise one, trust, consensus, security and using them effectively

Legal workshop: Looking at the increased powers the police have, and how they might invoke them

Mass actions: How to engage effectively in mass actions and help make it a successful event

Medic/ trauma: Basic first aid for people on protests, and what to do if someone is seriously injured

Other group actions: Other action people might wish to take

Please bring food and ideas to share!

Training day Sunday 8th October - 10am-4pm @ RampART

A second training day, for those who missed the first. This is being held at RampART not LARC!

Locations

LARC (London Action Resource Centre): 52 Fieldgate Street. Nearest tube: Aldgate East

Web: www.londonarc.org.uk

RampART: 15-17 Rampart Street. Nearest tube: Whitechapel Web: www.rampart.co.nr

Sack Parliament - 9th October - 1pm

www.sackparliament.org.uk