

Notts Indymedia
presents...

film screening + talk

“i” is a meditation on the relationship between media and power as it is manifested by the worlds largest all volunteer network of media activists: ‘Indymedia’. The feature-length documentary follows the first year of a small collective in Buenos Aires as it struggles amidst assassinations, a collapsing economy, and a whirlwind of political upheaval.

Thursday 12th October

* Argentina based director
Andres Ingoglia will present
