

Notts Indymedia presents...

“i” is a meditation on the relationship between media and power as it is manifested by the worlds largest all volunteer network of media activists: ‘Indymedia’.

The feature-length documentary follows the first year of a small collective in Buenos Aires as it struggles amidst assassinations, a collapsing economy, and a whirlwind of political upheaval.

film screening + talk

Thursday 12th October

Argentina based director Andres Ingoglia will present the film which is currently touring Europe.

"Beautiful, intellectual, riotous, it fits in no box..."

Naomi Klein, author "No Logo"/ The Take (film)

"i" is a galloping, careening, tornado of a film..."

Chris Anderson- The New York Independent

"...With a delicacy, elegance and a vibrancy that is irresistible."

John Jordan author "We Are Everywhere"

6pm Food

7.30pm Film

245 Gladstone Street, Forest Fields, Nottingham,

NG7 6HX, 0845 458 9595, www.sumac.org.uk, members and guests welcome. Bar open. Not to be flyposted.

* The Sumac Centre