

- * introduction to what is happening in Calais and the wider context
- * short film about Calais
- * what activists and migrants have been doing about it
- * questions and answers
- * small groups – what we can do from Brighton

info

night

Followed by bar and tunes

(Cowley Club members and guests)

@ the Cowley Club,

8.00-11.00pm

12 London Road, Brighton

Tuesday 22nd September

1500 migrants are living in 'jungles' and squats in Calais – some of the human fallout from the wars we resisted, on our doorstep. Funds raised support direct aid like medic work and challenging the brutal police actions against people.